Ken Bredemeyer is retired after thirty-one years in financial management. Along with his wife, Anne, he has traveled extensively throughout Ireland. He enjoys spending time with his grandchildren.

An enjoyable read. This is a guide book for a pub crawl. Why I enjoy a recommendation of some place to eat or stay, the way the author "gushed" certain places was a bit much. Having been to Ireland several times, I know there are several places to eat or stay that are very nice as well and recommend someone using this as a planner to explore all accommodates and eating places to suit their lifestyles.

What an amazing tour guide book. I felt like I was on the trip with them.

An entertaining and informative way to look at Ireland. I enjoyed the format, it's like you are right there seeing the sights and having a pint. Loved the included history.
