Play The Recorder, Book 1 (Faber Edition: Play The Recorder)

Synopsis

First published by Chappell's in the late 1960s, Robert Salkeld's Play the Recorder is a truly established method for recorder. Suitable for the self-taught, or for individual or group teaching, this methodical approach not only introduces the notes to be learned, but helps develop sound, expression and technical skills. Each section identifies fingering, breathing, tonguing and reading needs.
