Bought as a gift for a Music Student in my life, and it ways exactly what it says it was- Manuscript paper. Good price, comparable to local places around me that sell it, but I do wish it had a tad bit more pages. Will be buying again when he needs more.

Bought for my piano teacher on her retirement from active teaching. When I asked what she'd do to keep her hand in music, she said she'd go back to composing. She'd done some in college. While she was intending to purchase software that would "write" what she was playing, I chose this as a old-school reminder of her earlier composing days.

The pages tear easier, it's easier to keep organized, it doesn't get torn in my backpack full of other books, perfect size, great number of staves....I've gone through a few different books of manuscript paper, and this so far is my favorite.

Bought this for my daughter's high school Music Theory class. After 3 months of use the cover and pages have held up well. It is just the right amount of staves per page for her use and we're very happy with this item.

I am the kind of mom that has kids that wait until they need something, yesterday, to tell me. Thank you for having what I needed at an affordable price.

My teacher can write her few notes and music exercises for me so I have no trouble reading it. The paper is not too thick, but enough to write with a light pressure on both sides. It's good enough for my purposes. Probably, a bit thin for someone to write a lot on each line and sustain a lot of writing and crossing out and rewriting, especially with a harder push.

Exactly as expected.

Excited to find some cheap notation paper! good quality.
