The # 1 Authority on Collectibles 24th Edition 2014

This is as far as I am concerned the only price guide that I have used and the only one that I will ever use for my diecast collection. for a period of time it was not being printed and I was at a loss for an accurate and timely guide to keep track of the current value of my current collection of over 200 Elite Nascar diecast's. If you are a collector of anything sports related and you want to know the current market value check Beckett out to see if they offer a price guide for your collection. You will not be disappointed !!!

Been collecting for what seems like forever (1950s) and Beckett continues to provide the most accurate, latest up to date prices in the market for my needs of baseball, football, and NASCAR. Easy to read and ease of identifying the multitude of various cards with only slight differences in what appears to be the same card series yet are so different that it can make the difference in the value in a giant way. Beckett continues to be the 'leader of the pack' in pricing guides available today.

Bought this since my husband is into Nascar! He didn't have this 2014 and he was glad to get it.
Nice price guide--Now if we could get a hold of the 2015 edition!!

no updates to diecast - VERY dissappointed

Excellent and informative, tightening up of recent-10 Year prices are a welcome addition to this price guide.Older cards of HOF'ers need to be raised at least by 10%.

Did not update to new values, stuck at 2012 values for diecast

Do not buy this or any Beckett Racing guides. If you have any die cast collectibles made after 2010 this guide is virtually worthless. I understand there is an enormous amount of die cast on the market but this guide, (as many before it) covers very few and the pricing on a lot of items are way off. I had been a subscriber to Beckett for years, as well as other die cast guides, so when the monthly publications stopped and this was the only option, I stayed with it. Year after year I would buy this guide hoping that it would be updated but it doesn't seem to happen so I have spent my last money on Beckett.
