Battling cell phone rings and loud conversations I was looking for a few place a girl could go for some peace and quiet. This book is neat because there are a lot of unexpected places to visit in the NYC area. I would definitely recommend this book. Gives pictures, hours and transit.

Perfect book for me anyway! It has several sections, with one page devoted to each. Some of the spots/suggestions I was already aware of so I'm able to gage the book's quality from my own experience (very good). I can't wait to try out more spots from this book!

Love finding out about hidden gems!

This is a wonderful guide book to NY's best places to escape from it all! Great for tourists but especially us frazzled NYers who can't afford to actually get away from the city for whatever reason.

FANTASTIC LITTLE READ! If you thought you knew NY City, you will be surprised and amazed at some of these little known places to visit. I am setting a goal to visit them all during the next year!

I can't comment on the other places covered in this book, but flipping through the restaurant section was quite enough for me. McSorley's Old Ale House? Fanelli's? The Oyster Bar in Grand Central Station? Anyone who knows NYC would be easily forgiven for thinking this section a parody. In fact . . . is it?
