Mediterranean France And Corsica

Synopsis

This pilot is a comprehensive companion to the long coastline which ranges from Spain and the edge of the Pyrenees to the Alpes Maritimes and Italy. It covers the flat country of Languedoc-Roussillon - the coast of the Golfe du Lion, the Rhône delta and the Camargue, the industrial Golfe du Fos, the Côte d'Azur and the French Riviera and Monaco. The island of Corsica and the waterways that run behind the coast linking the Canal du Midi and the Étangs to the Rhône are covered in separate chapters.

Customer Reviews

We relied heavily on this guide during our two week charter in the Riviera. It enabled advance planning, options, and backup plans each day. The telephone numbers and radio contact information were accurate for the Marinas we contacted, and the harbor, mooring, and anchorage maps were likeways clear and accurate. We never ran aground, we always had a berth, ball, or anchorage, and we always had good ideas of what to expect. Mr. Heikell's candid summaries of the history of various places in the area were informative and added depth to the trip. Overall this is a well written and invaluable guide to the area. I would not sail this region without a copy on board.

Must have for anyone thinking of sailing in French waters without access to 24/7 internet or other references. Accurate and informative with a great deal of useful information.
