Customer Reviews

This book is very well written; however, I and a number of fellow classmates had a problem with the spine cracking after a few uses. This may have been a manufacturing defect limited to a select number of books. Nevertheless, it was disappointing to see a pricey book crack so quickly.

Great Book

Amazing casebook with rich information beaming from each page. The overall material and knowledge included by the authors is presented in a coherent manner that helps students absorb the complex particulars entrenched in any course on Federal Courts. In addition to the abundance of knowledge found throughout the entire casebook, the authors present the information in multiple ways that appeal to a greater variety of learning styles including the use of graphs and charts to present information to the reader. I'm very excited there is now a Kindle version, and look forward to being able to review and analyze everything with even greater ease thus increasing my understanding and comprehension of Federal Courts.
