Roger Priddy left school at 16 with just one qualificationÃ¢â€”in art. Â He went to Berkshire College of Art and Design and trained as an illustrator. His first job in childrenÃ¢â€”s books was working with the publisher Peter Usborne, at Usborne Publishing, and then he worked with Peter Kindersley at Dorling Kindersley, where he spent 16 years. Â Priddy became Creative Director of DKÃ¢â€”s ChildrenÃ¢â€”s Division and was Managing Director of the childrenÃ¢â€”s mass market publisher Funfax when it was acquired by DK. Â In 2000, he created Priddy Books with John Sargent at St MartinÃ¢â€”s Press to create innovative and imaginative titles for children, from first books for babies through early reference titles for older children. Since then, over 30 million copies of Roger's 200 plus books have sold worldwide, with five of his booksÃ¢â€”My Big Animal, My Big Truck, Happy Baby Words, Happy Baby Colors and Puppy and Friends—each selling over one million copies. He is also the author of Big Board First 100 Words; Big Board Books Colors, ABC, Numbers; and Bright Baby Noisy Monsters. His creativity has been recognized with numerous industry awards. Priddy lives in London with his wife Zena and their four children.

My kids found this book at the library and absolutely loved it so I had to buy one for them to keep at home. My daughter (3) especially loves it. It isn't my favorite book, which is why it got 4 stars and not 5. There is one line that I find to sound pretty rude, although my husband doesn't completely agree. They have safety tips on every page and some of them although good tips, don't really seem to fit in the book or are relevant. Altogether though, this is very cute. The art is adorable, the touch and feel is great, and the added "I Spy" aspect is our favorite.

This is my daughter's favorite book, already have two of these. Highly recommended!

My daughter loves this book.

This book is a great book for babies and toddlers. It's my son's favorite book. Bright colors. Bold black lines and textures for touch.

It's seems like people don't want to write bad reviews for children's books. I'm sorry to break tradition. First the good: My nearly 2 year old son loves this book. It's bright and colorful. The story is about a girl looking for her brother because she wants to play with him. It turns out her brother is gigantic and appears on every page. It's technically a touch and feel book, but the textures are sometimes difficult to notice. The girl, Dina ends up asking 7 people for her brother's location, but for some reason asks a mysterious woman, Dora twice. Dora appears to be an adult woman who eats at the and bathes at the family home. The constant "Is he here?", "No, try the nest place" is tedious. The biggest problem is that the book doesn't flow well. The word bubbles are sometimes below the narration even though they're meant to be read first. Also, There are safety tips on each page that really break up the story if read.

This book is our favorite for 1 year old daughter. Very colorful and a lot of things to touch and feel. The story itself is cute and easy to understand for our little one.
