Praise for Every Young Man, God's Man "Every Young Man, God's Man pulls no punches in challenging young men to declare their loyalty to Jesus Christ early and not waver in a lifelong pursuit of His ways and plans. All important issues are explored with refreshing candor, from personal holiness to sexual purity to spiritual warfare and more. Every young man eager to make his life count will gain huge benefits from this book." —Josh

McDowell, author and speaker
“Every Young Man God’s Man does more than just warn young men of the dangers that lurk in the shadows of adolescence. It gives them hope that they can overcome and conquer their fears. Every chapter is filled with the kind of practical, down-to-earth advice that will arm young men against the assaults of sexual temptation, peer pressure, and isolation. No overly simplistic solutions found here, just solid, scriptural principles that create Godly young men. My sons will read this book every soon!”
Ross Parsley, Associate Pastor, New Life Church
“Kenny Luck has a brave and raw style that grabs you by the throat and, at the same time, gently moves you to want to change. He is able to talk about the dark, secret, and tough places that most guys would prefer to keep secret. He says things that others only think of saying with the clear intent to help guys experience God’s love and power for their lives.”
Doug Fields, Pastor to Students at Saddleback Church, author, speaker, President of Simply Youth Ministry

This book lays out a great opportunity for a young man to consider how serious he is about "walking the talk" - making choices that enable them to put into practice the standards of the Christian faith with God’s help. Great for a maturing young guy who may be wondering if the faith he was raised in is going to help him deal with the challenges of real life. Best for a young man who seems genuinely open to testing out his faith and taking responsibility as a mark of evolving manhood.

I think everyone struggling with sin should read this. It doesn’t just focus on sexual immorality; it also focuses on our relationships with our friends and family.

Great resource for moms especially to understand what their teenage boy is facing. Also gives you tools to help support him in his battle to be a godly young man.

My son zoomed through and completely enjoyed this book. He even shared its contents with me during dinner conversations. It has a good focus on God and a good center for what a boy should be reading about. There is even a section that answers some of the tougher topics (tough for a single mom and a boy to discuss.)

Great book. Very Practical and a easy read. I am using it for a teen guys discipleship group.

This book deals with practical obstacles and circumstances in a young man's life. This is a good book for High School and College Students!

Awesome book for any young man. Love it so much. This book is packed with great advice.

Every young man should have this book. Great graduation present. Stephen Arterburn is a great author, knows what he's talking about.
