Customer Reviews

I believe this problem has been rectified but the pages were flimsy and I couldn't find any medium that would stick to the papers surface. Even with Prismacolor Premeirs I had to bear down on my pencil to get any color payoff and those pencils are way to expensive to use that way. Markers bleed through, feather and smear on the paper. The paper quality aside the book content goes beyond the snarky, sassy and sarcastic swears styles of artists like Sasha O'Hara or Cristen Frey to the realm of unjustified vulgarities. The book was full of words that would make a sailor blush and images that bordered on pornographic. If that's your thing I recommend deconstructing the book and printing it on decent paper at least.

The pages have a weird waxy coating that make it hard to lay color down.

I ordered this book for fun as a gift for my dad since I knew it would fit his humor just right...and yep, he loved it! It's a lot of fun for a great price and makes for a perfect coloring book for shenanigans with friends.

If you like swears word coloring books this is a good one
