Illustrator Per-Henrik Gurth keeps it simple, with bright colors and strong outlines around minimally defined objects in paintings of the Calgary Stampede, dogsleds, hockey, the Yukon - "where the Northern Lights glow," and last, a splendiferous Zamboni. Globe & Mail

Cute book for my Canadian niece.

We love this book! I am Canadian and my husband is American. We currently live in Canada, but have also lived in the USA. This is a cute little book to teach my son about Canada. I've also given this to many people who have ties to Canada and are living abroad. It makes a wonderful shower gift. It's a board book and the pictures are lovely. Super cute.

I am a Canadian living in the USA. I got this book to introduce my daughter to her ABC's while also showing off a bit of Canadian pride eh!

I bought this book for my two year old daughter. We have other ones in this series. I really like this one..... and I think she does too. Ha ha! It's got great big color illustrations and goes through the whole alphabet with Canadian stuff. We live in the U.S., so whenever I can teach my daughter a bit about my home and half of her citizenship country, I will do it! Loved it!

Bought 5. Going on vacation to see family. Nice sentence on each page. Good for younger toddlers, but also early readers.

This book is really cute. I was originally going to buy this while I was in Canada as a souvenir, but it was cheaper to buy on .

Great ABC book for 4 yr. old grandson whose family recently relocated to Canada. I enjoy reading thru it with him during visits. The colors are bright, illustrations are child-appropriate and there are some interesting twists on what the letter is portraying.

Good book overall and is now well used. Unfortunate that it arrived slightly bent and with a fragmented page.
