Customer Reviews

Phuket goes beyond beaches and bars; it also entails the fun and facts of Buddhist, shrine, Chinese temples, beautifully preserved, old fashioned cafes, museums and shophouses. These are gems you shouldn't really miss on while visiting this unique area and this book reveals these rare gems. You will find many traditional businesses such as printing, hardware, wholesales and great textiles as well as local restaurant and noodle shops. Also the site of substance from laem phromthep viewpoint is a short momentary experience to behold. The book also details much about the Muay fight which most people will find not good sitting but it is a tremendous event to behold. Also the book talks about the night market which is a narrow escape route from the super expensive malls and touristy shops. The best which happens on weekends, the market offers a huge variety of souvenirs, clothes and traditional Thai products. This book is a great revelational guide of Phuket, Thai city: the seafood places, beaches, Medina, fishing routes, upside down houses, drinking spots, water park and the delicious pork belly eaten in a relaxed atmosphere. Enjoy a parades of water sporting events ranging from surfing to scuba diving. I commend the author of this book for the attached maps and locations and recommend a correction of the mistakes made in the arrangement of the subheadings. Thank you

You will never get to fully enjoy a place as a tourist. When you're a tourist you probably have a tourist guide, and a tourist guide will take you to all the places popular with tourists, and to me that is hardly experiencing what the place has to offer you. This book is just the right guide you need to have an unforgettable experience. The difference that this book offers is that it was basically written by locals of Phuket. Locals know any place best; they know the fun spots, the beautiful spots, the spots you go to for some peace of mind. So when I visit a place I make sure to have a unique and unforgettable experience; I learn the language a little, I research the culture. Experiencing a place like a local is a surefire way to enjoy the experience.

The author was helpful on specific sights to see, but did not tell the whole story of how overdeveloped and crowded some areas are.

This book is worth it of my five stars considering that all I want to know is in this book. The accommodation, tourist spots, foods and many others is here. Phuket, Thailand is really a great place and should be pinned as part of our destination. What is good is the people in Phuket. This book provides everything we need also to prepare and how to get there.

excellent tips, worth buying !
