Customer Reviews

Terrific book with good instructions for basics but also showing some ideas/instructions for abstract/mixed media pieces. MANY styles of shirred rugs - all well explained here. One of the better rug-making books I have & it's a Keeper!

I was trying to get information on a type of rug making my mom used to do and just happened to run across this book. I took a chance and BINGO! It is exactly what I needed! The directions are clear and precise and have given me just what I wanted.

Just the book needed to get started on an old craft..renewed. Just finished designing a flower basket on brown paper. Wool coat & jackets bought at a thrift shop, removed linings & interfacings, cut into 3/4" strips, thread a long needle using carpet thread and begin making your own rug. Book is easy to follow.

excellent small book about an excellent and obscure subject!!

I've read the book and am trying to learn how to make a rug.

The most complete book on shirred and standing wool rug techniques I have been able to find so far.

Not much out there on this subject,,so very happy to get this info!

A great book on a very old craft. I refer to it a lot when I'm making rugs.
