Cool book. A lot of grammatical expressions. Requires a lot of discipline to get through the book and absorb all expressions with self study... :)

Great follow-on from the Genki I and Genki II textbooks.

Third level is without a doubt, a great challenge. However, this book provides a very similar structure to that from Genki I and II. If you liked the formatting of those two, I highly recommend this one.

Book as is. Great purchase. Everything is in Japanese except for a few explanations (for vocab) and culture notes. A+

This book is great. It does exactly what it's supposed to do, and never overuses polite language meaning you won't get completely lost when people drop the honorifics. It's somewhat made for a school environment, and doesn't hold your hand at all, which is great for self study. Not for the casual Japanese learner.

my cousin stole (and lost) all of my old japanese textbooks when he moved out of our house, so thank god i found this. it's not very "user-friendly" but the content is great if you don't mind more words and drills than pretty pictures.

worth the money

Great!
