Customer Reviews

Came damaged but kept anyway since most of the pages weren't ripped. The product itself is okay. Charts at bottom to put in chord diagrams are useful if teaching. But pages are not perforated.

This is a book of blank banjo tab lines for a five string banjo. This is a generous sized page and I can see it without my glasses. I jot down tabs with a pencil on these pages before converting them to Tabledit. It is a nice way to keep a paper copy of the tabs for those times when your computer crashes and you lose all your files. :) Very reasonably priced and functional. Also, I like the bright colored cover which makes it easier to find in a stack of tab books. :) Banjo Dreamin' Suwannee Nights A Secret Life Of Banjo Walkin' That Banjo Home Vintage Banjo [...].

the binding is so rigid that the book will not lay flat to write out the tabs. the pages do not have perforated tear outs.

No aides in how to use the paper within it! Blah who blimps the screen with crap words to fill in the required amount of words
