This is a condensed version that was my go-to on the trip (I used the the bigger book to get more in-depth on Iceland itself; history, etc.). This little book is a great introduction to a mysterious European country: Iceland and it's capital Reykjavik. This made the book particularly enjoyable as a blend of travel guide, history lesson, and mythology. The book is filled with great photographs of Reykjavik to accompany the text. Perfect book to read before your Iceland trip!

This book has tons of useful information about the city and all of it is great for general background. I can say that this is really a highly useful book if you plan on making the trip to Reykjavik in the near future. It's a compact yet thorough guide that will give you all of the information you need to ensure you have a great time in this wonderful city.

Waste of time and money. Do not bother buying this ripoff of a so called book. Look elsewhere for travel info.
