A recipe developer, food photographer, and hops enthusiast, Jacquelyn Dodd took her fascination with craft beer to the next level when she launched The Beeroness. Dedicated to exploring the vibrant tastes developed by knowledgeable brewers, her website features hundreds of delicious recipes that highlight the art of cooking with those beers she loves. Jackie has developed recipes for multimillion-dollar companies as well as cooked up a storm on Today, CBS News, and Lifetime. Jackie is also a writer and recipe developer for Draft, Parade, Whisk, and Honest Cooking. She is the author of The Craft Beer Cookbook and The Craft Beer Bites Cookbook. You can visit her website at TheBeeroness.com.

Good recipes, and a lot that sound yummy to me, even though I'm pretty picky. We've only made the churros so far, but they were GREAT. A lot of the recipes have a good number of ingredients- not necessarily stuff you'd have at home, but hey, an excuse to cook great food and drink good beer is worth a shopping trip.

Got it for my roommate and the recipes are pretty awesome and not too bad. Kind of long ingredients list so not easy but the food is great

I bought this for my husband for Christmas and he loves it. He hasn't had the chance to make anything from the cookbook, but he's excited to do so.

Excellent ideas for the everyday cook and beer lover! Am currently working through the recipes and have yet to be disappointed.

Loved this! The book is high quality with amazing recipes! Very excited to gift this to my beer loving pap!

She has awesome recipes for beer. Very unique flavor combinations. A gift for my son that I will copy recipes from.

absolutely the best cookbook ever for sliders and appetizers for entertaining. easy instructions. anyone can cook like a pro. well written and entertaining too. a must have!

Perfect for making small bites appetizers.
