Customer Reviews

It is a good thing to know the legal obligations foreign tourist must do before entering the Philippines. I also appreciate the fact that the declaration of what you carry with you was included in the book. I was planning to bring my tablet and my laptop as usual but it looks like bringing both might give me some problems. I will still be going in the Philippines that I am sure of. I just have to decide which of my gadgets I need to leave at home. I might not really need any gadget at all anyway since my schedule will be filled with all the things I want to try out.

Great book
