Sara Taylor has a monster crush on her friend Paul. He went away for one year and returned but she see her best friend Nina all over him. Nina soon begins dating Paul and Sara's heart is crushed. So what does a girl in middle school do with a crushed heart? She gets herself several fake boyfriends, but one major boy in particular-school hottie Dane. Dane likes Sara but Sara think he's a player. Will Sara ever get the boy of her dreams Paul or fall in love with school hottie Dane?This was TOTALLY not Middle School; it seemed more High School. In my middle school none of this ever happened. I enjoyed the book though. It was fun, sweet, and it kept my attention. I was rooting for so many people at one point. First it was Dane, next Paul, then Sara, and then all three. I was sooo happy with the ending. I'm definitely reading more of Melanie Marks' Middle School stories.Overall a fun novel that kept my attention!P.S. I didn't know some of the Middle School stories go through high school (like His Kiss is connected to Best Friend Wars).

I have read several of the "Wars" books by Melanie Marks. This one is just as good as the others. My granddaughter has enjoyed them and I read them with her. They are funny and great reading for a pre-teen or young teen girl. I'll be watching for more books in the "Wars" series. This one is our third (or fourth) In the series and, I hope, not our last. (I may order them for myself even when she outgrows them!)

Aww! This book is so good! I love how Sara and Paul finally get together! IN YOUR FACE NINA!!! Some friend. If you like drama you should totally read this book. It took forever for Sara and Paul to get together but they did! You did it again Melanie! I love this book.
