Customer Reviews

Admittedly, I didn't really look at the product description, but this is more like a pamphlet than a book. Given that it was the only Oslo-specific guidebook, I expected a more thorough, detailed work.

No photos, no maps, just literally 10 places in B&W with a description. Hard for me to visualize.

This book only have a couple of pages per site- it didn't contain any information that i couldn't find on the internet. I was very disappointed when I saw the number of pages and amount of information.

There is nothing better than to visit another country and to see it like a local. In this particular book on Oslo the author provides great information, organizes it nicely and offers great tips that will make you want to grab your passport! Nicely done, and bon voyage. Pick up a copy now.

You'll be glad you did! Highly recommended.

Disappointed- no pictures, just some info I could easily have read on line. Returned it!

Compared to other "Top 10" guides this was quite disappointing. It is very short, has no background on the city or Norway and provides little more than a Wikipedia look-up. Not worth the money.

rather plain and not overly informative. no pics.

Great introduction to Oslo
