Laura Ingalls Wilder (1867–1957) was born in a log cabin in the Wisconsin woods. With her family, she pioneered throughout America's heartland during the 1870s and 1880s, finally settling in Dakota Territory. She married Almanzo Wilder in 1885; their only daughter, Rose, was born the following year. The Wilders moved to Rocky Ridge Farm at Mansfield, Missouri, in 1894, where they established a permanent home. After years of farming, Laura wrote the first of her beloved Little House books in 1932. The nine Little House books are international classics. Her writings live on into the twenty-first century as America's quintessential pioneer story. Renée Graef received her bachelor's degree in art from the University of Wisconsin at Madison. She is the illustrator of numerous titles in the Little House publishing program, as well as Rodgers and Hammerstein's My Favorite Things and E.T.A Hoffman's The Nutcracker, adapted by Janet Schulman. She lives in Cedarburg, Wisconsin, with her husband and two children.

I love that these are modest and that there are lots of props to play with, however I was disappointed to find that, even though the seller states that the pieces are sturdy and easy to pop out of the book, they are in fact not! The only pieces that are card stock and sturdy are the people and yes, they were easy to just pop out. The majority of the pieces though, like all of the clothes, are flimsy and I had to cut them out by hand. It took a few days to do. I wish I would have known that before I purchased them. Other than that, the paper dolls are beautiful and fun for my daughter, but I'm only giving it a 3 star rating, because it was annoying to me that the description makes it seem one way when it really is another. If you're OK with cutting most of it out by hand and having flimsy clothes then this product is just fine.

I'm 52 years old. I love to watch Little House on the Prairie. I have all the Little House books written by Laura. I also have the books written about her mother and her grandmother. I have visited the Little House in Kansas and the house that Laura and Almanzo lived and Laura wrote the Little House books in Mansfield, Missouri. Luckily I don't live but a few hours away from these 2 places. I bought these paper dolls to add to my collection. I also have some autographs from some of the actors that were on the show.

Very very pleased with my purchase. My ten year old granddaughter was thrilled with her birthday present. She and her sister have the Little House book collections. The family figures as well as pets are wonderful. Also includes a cabin and outside "setting" to add to the imaginative play. Would definitely buy again.

This set is super cute! I was a tad annoyed to have to cut out almost everything- only a few items were punch-out, so I was a bit disappointed to have the tedious work of cutting everything out (it probably took at least an hour). There were also 2-3 times I had to use a razor to make slits in the paper. Overall though, very cute outfits that fit well. Nice assortment of outfits and props. My 4-year-old loves them!

My young preschooler and I have been reading the My First Little House books together and she always has lots of questions about the page in the Winter in the Big Woods book about the paper dolls that Ma cuts out for Laura and Mary, so I was so happy to find this paper doll toy for sale! It was my present to her on Christmas Day and I don't know who loves it more, myself or my daughter! It brings back my own fond memories of reading the LH books and watching the series. Recommend using a sharp pair of scissors and be prepared to pace yourself when cutting out as I found my hand got quickly tired. So we work on one or two set of dresses at a time. My daughter really enjoys dressing the dolls up and setting them in front of the sweet little background scene provided. All in all a great and "slow time" toy for a child who likes the Little House series or just enjoys dressing paper dolls.

Granddaughter had never seen paper dolls. She loved cutting them out and playing with them.

I wish they'd publish the other options again. My daughter and son love these so much we ordered a new set to replace the battered old ones. Mary had lost her head, so it was quite necessary. ;-)

After giving these to our 9 year old granddaughter for Christmas I heard her ask her uncle what they were and he explained how paper dolls work and that they were an "old school" toy. She then exclaimed to her dad "Look Dad, Grandma got me OLD SCHOOL!!" We all got a good laugh out of that one. That's Grandma, she is old school all the way!!
