Customer Reviews

This book has recipes for eleven different flavors of truffles such as Raspberry and White

Chocolate, Rocky Road, Triple Chocolate, and Toasted Coconut. The first portion of the book is an overview of what a truffle is, the various ways of melting chocolate, and storing truffles. Each truffle is illustrated with a close-up photograph showing the whole truffles and one cut open in order to see the center filling. Ingredients, which are amazingly few for each flavor, are listed in both metric and American measurements. The instructions for making each truffle are well explained and detailed. Ideas for further decorating the various types of truffles are included with the recipes. Who knew that chocolate sprinkles are called "chocolate vermicelli" outside of North America? Recommended unless you're on a strict diet.

Easy to make. Simple recipes that anyone can make.

This book has easy to make recipes with ingredients anyone has at home. It's easy to follow steps.
