Synopsis

Trinidad some of the many attractions to be found there, how to reach the island, its resources and productions, a brief history of its discovery and settlement, thus forming a complete index and guide for visitors and tourists to all points of interest in Trinidad. Some of the chapters were written in Trinidad, amid the beautiful scenes they describe. As for the rest, the author is under obligations to various works from which he obtained much valuable information, especially from The History of Trinidad, by L. M. Frasier; A Sketch of the Island of Trinidad, written for the Chicago World's Fair, by Henry J. Clark; and the Mirror Almanack of Trinidad, and W. G. MacFarland. The author has also endeavored, by the aid of maps and numerous reproductions of photographs, to present the best illustrated work ever published on Trinidad. The photographs for this purpose were furnished by Felix Morin, W. A. Dunn, L. Placide Co., and L. F. Sellier. (Typographical errors above are due to OCR software and don't occur in the book.)
