Sohanya Cheng has lived, traveled and worked around the world, including Sri Lanka, London, Nepal, US and France, always eager to see, taste, and learn more about the world. She has a two year old daughter who inspired this story and who she hopes will be her future companion for many travels to come. She is currently based in California with a passion for writing and landscape painting.

This was a really nice little story with cute illustrations. I purchased this along with a little white stuffed animal lamb for my 2 year old niece. She seemed to really like it since her name is Lily and she got a lamb of our own.

I love traveling and can only hope my daughter likes it as much as I do. While traveling the world is a little more challenging these days, we sure had fun running through Paris in this book. The illustrations really kept my daughter engaged. We can't wait to see where Lilly and Baa end up next.

Such a cute book! Got this for my best friend's daughter who just started preschool. It's sweet how much she loves it. We caught her in the dark in her room after she was put to bed trying to read it all by herself. There is something about this book she really loves. Good gift.

My 3 year old really enjoyed this book. Helping look for Lily's red hat kept her really engaged, and the illustrations were nice and vivid. This has quickly become a new favorite in our household. We'll be waiting to see which city Lily decides to visit next!

Wonderful story about Lily taking her friend Baa, a sheep, around Paris. Our 6 year old has loved practicing her reading with it, and her younger brother loves the Parisian illustrations. Lovely book!

Such a delightful book! It is an engaging read and gives children a fascinating glimpse of a world city. Our 2 year old enjoyed flipping through the colorful scenes.

Our 3 yr old loves that Lily has a toy sheep like she does. After we read the story the first time, she asked us to read it several more times that evening.

As a family with ties to and relatives in Europe, Lily & Baa is the perfect story for our little one and his cousins to remind them of the wonders abroad. It keeps them engaged in culture, is just the right length to keep them focused, and already has them hooked on Lily and her best friend Baa - we can't wait to see where the two are off to next! We just love this book!
